ICAPP is delighted to invite you to attend a morning session on INFANT OBSERVATION

Observing a Personality Develop:
Perspectives on Infant Observation

During the sessions the presenters will consider:
What is Infant Observation; What can we learn from it;
What does the infant and the family get from it.

WHEN: Saturday, October 10, 2015
Arrive 9.15am for a 9.30am start. Finishing at 12.15pm
WHERE: 3 Church St. Waverley
COST: $40
FOR BOOKINGS: trybookings.com

For Further information email: theicapp@hotmail.com

The Institute of Child & Adolescent Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy (ICAPP) provides a range of short & long term courses for psychologists, health, welfare & educational professionals. The courses are based in Sydney and are designed to develop psychoanalytic thinking that can be effectively used in various settings involving work with children, adolescents & their families.

For further information on ICAPP courses please contact
Liz Chaikin at ICAPP
02 9420 8989

About the Morning

Programme
9.30am. Welcome and Introduction. Peter Blake
9.40am. Extract from "Sunday's Child" - a film on Infant Observation
10.00am Starting out on Observing an Infant Davor Obradovic
10.40am Short Break
10.50 Excerpt from "Getting to Know You" a film on infant communication during the first three months
11.10am 'Don't It Make Your Brown Eyes Blue' – an Infant Observation paper by Jude Piercey
11.50am Discussion
12.15pm Close

About the Presenters

Jude Piercey is a psychoanalytic psychotherapist in Private Practice in Sydney and is a final year student in the ICAPP Clinical Training. She is a Foundation Member of the Mandala Community Counselling Service

Davor Obradovic is currently undertaking the ICAPP Certificate Course

This event is equivalent to 2 CPD hours